

• It feels like Freedom! Tears of Joy

- It feels like Frustration Just Tears (there are so many ways to do a thing and yet I can't do the thing that I want!)

It feels Collaborative. a bunch of other code supports your code

It is Always Changing!

- Must learn how to learn: what is the syntax again? How do I use this code I found off another site? What happens if play with these property values?

What is it like to build a website?
